Intro bit..

Next Tea with Teela evening is on the 18th May - starts at 7pm but doors open at 5pm if you want to use the changing facilities

Hey girls,

Hope you are all enjoying this gorgeous spring weather, let's hope it lasts for both of our May Bank Holidays!!

The latest on my ankle is that I am still to take plenty of rest with my feet up but that isn't going to stop me working - oh no! I am now taking bookings so please give me a call and get yourself booked in as soon as possible.

A couple of friends have volunteered to be "my legs" and help out with my 5* & 3* dressing service appointments. Those of you who regularly attend Tea with Teela evenings you will know Mrs Kate (Shirley) and Emma who are both kindly donating their time to help me. My heartfelt thanks to both of you.

Although I was stuck in an arm-chair with my feet up on the last Tea with Teela it was a fabulous evening with lots and lots of gorgeous girls turning up. Was it because we were doing a presentation on skin care or was it the warmer and lighter nights? Who knows, maybe a mixture of both but nevertheless it was a lovely evening judging by the continuous laughter I heard throughout.

Thanks go to Natalie for such an interesting and informative presentation - see Tilly's Blog!

Next tea evening will be the 18th May. Pics from last time are at the back.

Love
Teela-Jane

Look and feel fantastic - have a make-over for that special Sparkle party night only £30

---

Volunteers Wanted

As mentioned last month, there will be a Transpose stand in Sackville Gardens on the Saturday afternoon with photos of make-overs, albums, prize draws, free wine & nibbles, demonstrations and of course Teela & Natalie to talk the hind legs off you all!!!

We are looking for 3-4 volunteers to spare a couple of hours on the Sparkle Saturday afternoon, starting at 12 noon to hand out a few leaflets.

There is a BUT!! You will have to wear a tee-shirt with "Teela's Angels" on.

So, if you are going anyway and would like to help out please let us know by phone or email.

Make-over

PLEASE don't leave it too late to book your Sparkle make-over, slots are already starting to fill up.

Remember the price of the Sparkle make-over hasn't changed now for 3 years - a bargain at £30!!

How many times have you put aside a good hour or so to do your make-up only to find that the whole thing goes horribly wrong? It takes longer than you thought, panic sets in and then you get mascara everywhere, your nail varnish smudges, eye shadow looks different on each eye resulting in a lack of confidence and a ruined night out ..... having a make-over will eliminate all that stress coz you know you will look bloody fantastic for your night out.

For just £30 what have you got to lose? Remember, if you are a member of Transpose, you will also get your discount.

So come on, what you waiting for? Book in now.

Tilly's Blog

Well here we are a 3rd of the way through 2009, spring is in the air and summer is creeping up slowly. I must have blinked and missed February and March – where did they go?

Ugh my year not going according to plan so far, my lovely perm is turning out to be even harder to control than my 16 year old son, my diet has pretty much been abandoned due to Teela's sore foot (my excuse and am sticking to it!) and the New Years resolution of becoming more organised at home is now being viewed more as a mere suggestion than a plan!

On a more positive note many of you attended the tea night on Monday last and very kindly sat (some slept I noticed!!) through my lecture (woops sorry – presentation :-)) on the why's and what's of a good skin routine. Hard copies are available should you so desire a reminder.

Mandy won the Freebie Offer posted of a facial from last March's newsletter and was happy to endorse the pampering session, and even promised to have another one! I would like to thank her for her support and for being my first victim lol!

Now is the time to start looking at your skin routines, both face and body, so you can peel back the layers with confidence in the sunshine. I shall be extolling the wonders of various products over the coming months telling you my experiences, outcomes and any disasters that may occur and would positively encourage you to email me with your own – 'share the love' as they say.

For those of you who use or would like to use fake tan products I shall be on hand to outline the preparations you should use to get the best results, and help with product suggestions.

For those of you who like to be 'English Roses' then making sure your skin is protected from the sun will help avoid discolouration, burning and dehydration keeping your skin tone even.

Teela sells a product called "spray on stockings" for those of you who want an instant but not permanent tan. The results are quite amazing actually and this stuff just sprays on and then washes off with soap in a shower.

Please feel free to email either myself or Teela for further information on Trans-pose Skin Therapy. natalie.atkinson@trans-pose.com

“Anyone reading this should really contact this lovely lady and let her work her magic on you. Her results will amaze”

Girl of the month

Rachel Adams.....

Rachel first came to see me earlier on this year and these pictures were taken at our second photo shoot which took place mid April.

Because of my ankle situation, I was unable to move around and apart from applying the make-up, Rachel did very much everything else including making the coffee. Instead of me looking after her, she looked after me. We still managed to get some nice photos done though despite my mobility problems.

Special thanks to another Rachel - Rachel Green - who mentioned Transpose on her TV Chix profile where Rachel Adams spotted it - you see it does work!!

Here is Rachel's own words:
"I first got to know about Teela and Transpose by chance through another website. I was amazed by the results of her makeovers and so contacted her for an appointment for a 5star. I was blown away with the results I got and have since been to see her again I will definitely be making a regular visit.

As for Teela herself, no other word to describe her but 'wonderful'. So cheerful, welcoming and friendly - so easy to get on with. The services she offers us girls are second to none and anyone reading this should really contact this lovely lady and let her work her magic on you. Her results will amaze"

Website update

With having plenty of time on my hands lately, its given me the opportunity to get some work done on the website.

Could all of those girls who have visited Transpose for a 5* make-over and would like their pictures to appear in the gallery, please get in touch and we will get this sorted. Apologies for this taking such a long time to sort out.

Teela's Tips

Draw the line!

Lining & defining are the eye opening experience you need to help your eyes live up to their potential.

Here are my tips for perfect eye liner.

- Apply eye liner first, before eye shadow. The shadow will soften the line for a beautiful, natural look.
- Use short strokes instead of one continuous line, and don't extend line too much past outer lid.

- Use a softer touch (less pressure) when applying liner to bottom lashes.
- Always smudge and blend!
- Use a white liner on the lower rim of your eyes to open them up.

You've been framed

Many of you wear glasses but do you know how to change your makeup so your eyes are at an advantage?

Glasses really draw attention to your eyes... there are tricks you need to know to bring it all into focus.

- Apply a touch of shimmer eye shadow in white or a light neutral to the inner corner of your eyelids.
- Exaggerate your shadow and mascara a bit.
- Well-shaped brows play a key role; you want them to "frame" your face, not your glasses.

If you want any help with either of these techniques, come and see Teela at Sparkle.
